

Good Tuesday Morning My Church Family

Worry weights a person down; an encouraging word cheers a person up

Proverbs 12:25

“Every man is a quotation from all his ancestry”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

An old Japanese proverb says “One kind word can warm three winter months.” Words have always been a powerful and meaningful means for connecting us with each other. Words can last a lifetime if we take the time to value their importance.

I wish to let all the message givers, encouragers, and lovers of God, know how much I have loved and value all your writings.

They have kept me inspired and this journey we are all on, I think less about because of the WORDS you have written & shared.

I close with a few quotes of “When Words Matter Most”

Change your thoughts and you change the world-----Norman Vincent Peale

Courage is grace under pressure-----Ernest Hemingway

There is no medicine like hope, no incentive so great, and no tonic so powerful as expectation of something tomorrow-----Orison S. Marden

See you tomorrow
